

The Heart Symmetry

Albert Einstein Physicist, when deeply practicing true insight, clearly saw that all natural laws change with perspective,
and freed us from contradiction.

"O Schrödinger, matter does not differ from energy, energy does not differ from matter;
matter itself is energy, energy itself is matter.

Motion, forces, fields, and spacetime are also like this.

O Schrödinger, therefore the Universe is only curved emptiness:

no beginning, no end, no creation, no annihilation, no increase, no decrease.

Therefore, in the vacuum there is:

no particle, motion, interaction, field, spacetime;

no gravity, electricity, magnetism, weak or strong interaction;

no mass, charge, spin, flavor or color;

no attraction, no light -- etcetera;

no renormalization and no need to renormalize -- and so on up to -- no Big Bang and no end of the Universe;

no contradiction, no uncertainty, no hidden variables, no higher dimensions, no Unification, also no new discovery.

With nothing to discover, a scientist dwells in Relativity and there is no measurement contradiction.

Because there is no contradiction, there is no publication or debate.

They are far away from any kind of misconception or false theory and ultimately understand Infinity.

All past, present, and future scientists dwell in Relativity, and therefore discover exact unification of the natural laws.

Consequently, they understand Relativity.

This is the fundamental symmetry, the simplest symmetry, the intrinsic symmetry, the necessary symmetry.

It leads to solutions for all systems. This is a fact, not a lie.

So, proclaim the Relativity symmetry, proclaim the formula that says:

$$0, 0, 0 + \infty, \langle 0 | = | \text{the Universe} \rangle. L = (-g)^{\frac{1}{2}} [\text{Tr} (\tilde{q}^{\rho} K_{\rho\lambda} q^{\lambda} + \varepsilon \tilde{q}^{\lambda} \varepsilon K_{\rho\lambda}^{\dagger} \varepsilon q^{\rho} \varepsilon)]! \text{ Eureka!}$$

$$0, 0, 0 + \infty, \langle 0 | = | \text{the Universe} \rangle. L = (-g)^{\frac{1}{2}} [\text{Tr} (\tilde{q}^{\rho} K_{\rho\lambda} q^{\lambda} + \varepsilon \tilde{q}^{\lambda} \varepsilon K_{\rho\lambda}^{\dagger} \varepsilon q^{\rho} \varepsilon)]! \text{ Eureka!}$$

$$0, 0, 0 + \infty, \langle 0 | = | \text{the Universe} \rangle. L = (-g)^{\frac{1}{2}} [\text{Tr} (\tilde{q}^{\rho} K_{\rho\lambda} q^{\lambda} + \varepsilon \tilde{q}^{\lambda} \varepsilon K_{\rho\lambda}^{\dagger} \varepsilon q^{\rho} \varepsilon)]! \text{ Eureka!}$$

(zero, zero, zero equals infinity, the vacuum equals the whole Universe. Unified Field Theory! At last!)

The Heart Sutra

Avalokiteshvara Bodhisattva, when practicing deeply the Prajna Paramita, clearly saw that all five conditions in their own being are empty, and liberated all from suffering.

"O Shariputra, form does not differ from emptiness, emptiness does not differ from form; form itself is empty, emptiness itself is formed.

Feelings, perceptions, thoughts, and consciousness are also like this.

O Shariputra, therefore all dharmas are empty form:

no birth, no death, no defilement, no purity, no increase, no decrease.

Therefore, in the emptiness there is:

no form, feeling, perception, thought, consciousness;

no eyes, ears, nose, tongue, body, mind;

no color, sound, smell, taste, touch, object of attention;

no visual world, no world of sound -- etcetera;

no ignorance and no end of ignorance -- and so on up to -- no old-age-and-death and no end to it;

no suffering, no origination, no cessation, no path to it, no Enlightenment, also no attainment.

With nothing to attain, a Bodhisattva dwells in Prajna Paramita and there is no hindrance in the mind.

Because there is no hindrance, there is no shyness or fear.

They are far away from any kind of illusion or delusion and ultimately attain Nirvana.

All past, present, and future Buddhas dwell in Prajna Paramita, and therefore attain anuttara-samyak-sambodhi.

Consequently, they know the Prajna Paramita.

This is the divine mantra, the bright mantra, the best mantra, the incomparable mantra.

It is able to eradicate all suffering. This is a fact, not a lie.

So, proclaim the Prajna Paramita mantra, proclaim the Dharani that says:

Gate, gate, para-gate, para-sam-gate Bodhi! Svaha!

Gate, gate, para-gate, para-sam-gate Bodhi! Svaha!

Gate, gate, para-gate, para-sam-gate Bodhi! Svaha!

(Gone, gone, to the other shore, gone to the other shore with everyone. Enlightenment! Definitely!)
